Scholarship Essay

Minimum of 500 words-double-spaced typed and may be submitted in English, French or Haitian Creole.

Masters of the Dew, by Jacques Roumain

In the text, Roumain shared his view on Education.

"Education is necessary. It helps to understand life."

"And if peasants attended school, some would not be so easily fooled, taken advantage of and treated as dumb".

Essay:
Write a unified and coherent essay in which you evaluate Roumain's perspectives on the importance of Education.
In your essay, be sure to:
. Analyze and evaluate the perspective given (from the book)
. State and develop your own perspective on the issue
. Explain the relationship between your own perspective and the one given.

Books are available at Amazon and Public Libraries.

Post Award Requirements:

Applicant must commit to do a videotape or radio interview with HAFTB.
